Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good," and Doctor Pierce's medicine well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popularity, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle wrapper—no secret, no house-poise humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for women's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve medicine it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "boom" for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are never afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

A HUSBAND'S REVENGE.

James Frady, of Limestone, N. C., Tuesday night fired five bullets into Frady Summer, his intimate friend and next-door neighbor, whom he surprised in company with Mrs. Frady, who died as her husband fired at her. Frady walked ten miles to Asheville, woke the jailer at midnight, said he had killed a man and requested to be locked up.

Frady, according to the story he told the officials, was away from home Tuesday afternoon, returning unexpectedly early in the evening.

Upon entering the house he found his wife and Summer in a room together, and immediately began shooting, his object, he says, being to kill both the friend who had wrecked his home and the wife who had betrayed him. The first shot entered Summer's right lung, another pierced the abdomen, and a third struck him in the right shoulder. Screaming in fear, Mrs. Frady ran from the house, as her husband fired at her. Thinking he had killed Summer, Frady started for Asheville to surrender. The "unwritten law" will be his defense.

Summer, who was found by members of his family, who had heard the shooting, was taken to George W. Vanderbilt's hospital, at Baltimore, and attending physicians last night stated that he had about an even chance for his life.

Summer was formerly a deputy sheriff of Buncombe county, and both men were considered among the most substantial residents of the town.

PISTOL BATTLE.

As a result of a pistol battle in a darkened bed room at the home of Thomas Nichols, at Shawnee, Okla., three men were shot, two of whom will die. Further bloodshed was prevented by the heroism of Miss Bessie Nichols, sixteen years old, who threw herself between two of the combatants.

Charles Nichols and Joe McClatchey were placed under arrest.

At a country dance near Kiowa Tuesday night an altercation occurred between members of the McClatchey and Nichols families, who attended. There was a personal encounter, but it was stopped quickly before any one was badly hurt.

After the dance Charles Nichols went home, accompanied by a friend. Some time after retiring Nichols and his friend were aroused by some one entering the room.

They seized their guns and opened fire, the shots being returned. Thomas Nichols, father of the young host, rushed into the room armed, and the shooting became general.

Regardless of the bullets, Miss Bessie, Charles Nichols' sixteen-year-old sister, followed her father, sprang between two of the men, and knocked up one weapon, saving her brother's life.

Do Not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out, and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Kodol is today the best known remedy for all disorders of the stomach, such as dyspepsia, heartburn, sour stomach and belching of gas. Sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co.

RAUCI RIFE.

The replacing of negro labor with Greeks by the Interstate Commerce Company at Belhaven, in the extreme eastern section of North Carolina, led to a race riot late Tuesday night. The Greeks occupied houses on the company's property, and about sixty negroes, well armed, attacked the foreigners about midnight and drove them to a neighboring swamp. The Greeks were unarmed and offered practically no resistance. Five of the Greeks are reported to be fatally wounded.

Belhaven is a village without police protection, and yesterday the authorities of Beaufort county appealed to the governor for military protection. Acting under the chief executive's orders, the Washington Light Infantry, of Charlotte, was ordered to the scene. More trouble was expected last night, but owing to the inaccessibility of Belhaven communication was impossible last night.

Predicts Democratic Success.

Chicago, Mar. 12.—"Democracy is on the eve of a national victory. Bryan will be the nominee. His principles are recognized as the need of the hour. The republicans are over-confident by long unbroken success and split into factions. That, combined with a realization of the failure of their policies to give the country relief in a distressful day, insures the election of democratic candidates." Urey Woodson, of Owensboro, Ky., secretary of the democratic national committee, summarized the outlook for the national election and expressed the foregoing opinion yesterday.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently yet promptly on the bowels and always induces action at the same time. It is pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.
